Dear Paul

In times like these, saving money anywhere you can is high priority. This is one of the easiest ways I have seen to find savings on a monthly basis. Once we supplied the initial information, your audit process required very little of our time. Some of the issues uncovered were surprising and we are happy that they are now cleared up. The cost reductions started showing up on invoices very quickly. The savings realized over the next several months will be substantial.

We would recommend going through one of your audits to other businesses. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Martin
